Sports regulations

- Art.1: The crossroad of the Mediterranean is open to competitors licensed or not, men and women, 18 years and over.
- Art.2: Competitors are required to return the medical certificate that Nature Extrême Développement sent them upon confirmation of their registration, completed and signed by their doctor.
- Art.3: The Large Course gives rise to a timing and ranking. The Small Course is not timed and does not give rise to a classification. This Small Course is carried out at free pace.
- Art.4: Checkpoints and refuelling points are set up regularly. Scoring is mandatory. It is imperative that a competitor who abandons must notify or goes to the nearest checkpoint to notify it.
- Art.5: Competitors are committed to a state of mind that honors running and sport in general.
- Art.6: A competitor not listed in the ranking during a stage will be credited for that stage of the last time burdened by an hour penalty. It will thus be able to re-enter the general classification. This approach can only be applied once per competitor.
- Art.7: The crossroad of the Mediterranean crosses a population that has its customs and traditions: we must respect them.

Responsible Tourism

Responsible tourism is one of the values of Nature Extrême Développement. For each flight, carbon compensation is suggested through the GOODPLANET Foundation (www.goodplanet.org). Nature Extrême Développement also carries out other actions for responsible tourism, and is a member of the association ATR (Act for Responsible Tourism). As such, we invite every traveller to read and sign voluntarily the traveller's ethical charter: <https://www.tourisme-responsable.org/voyager-responsable/charte-ethique-voyageur/> so that all together participate at our level to this goal.

Acceptance of travel contract and insurance

I undersigned (last name and surname), acting on my behalf, declares to have taken cognizance of:

- general conditions of sale and the technical sheet of the trip I have chosen, and accept them (available on the website www.natureextremedeveloppement.fr).
- contractual conditions of the insurance to which I have the choice to subscribe.
- of the physical and technical level required for this trip, declare to be healthy and feel fit to participate in the circuit as proposed. (The provision of the specific medical certificate for the test is mandatory and must be provided).
- sports regulations above and comply with them during my participation.
- values for Responsible Tourism of Nature Extrême Développement, suggestions for carbon compensation through the GOODPLANET Foundation, and the ethical charter of the traveler of the organization ATR: <https://www.tourisme-responsable.org/voyager-responsable/charte-ethique-voyageur/>.

- Information about my destination, including security and risk issues related to the country of destination, on the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs www.diplomatie.gouv.fr in the section "advice to travelers" and I undertake to check this information before my departure.

I also realized that during this trip, I may run some risks, related in particular to the offered activity, natural risks, political-economic instability and remoteness from medical centers.

I declare to knowingly assume these risks, and therefore undertake not to defer responsibility for these risks to Nature Extrême Développement.
